WASHINGTON ELKS ENJOY FEAST TO-DAY

Will Devour Shellfish at Chesapeake Beach.

"All aboard for the Rhode Island clam-

That will be the cry of Sergeunt-atarms Charles H. Utermehle, of Washington Lodge of Elks, at Chesap-eke Junction this morning as the last of 200 lodgemen board a special train for Chesap-eke Beach where the Elks will hold an early special train for Chesap-eke Beach where the Elks will hold apeake Beach, where the Elks will hold their first clambake.
It will be a real khode Island bake

It will be a real khode Island bake.

P. C. Larken, a "brother Eik," of New Rochelle, N. Y., will stage the bake, assisted by a corps of trained assistants, all Elics from his home city." Citis will be the first time iont a clembake his been attempted so far inland, and to insure a delectable outing Washington Lodge invited Mr Larken and his confirmed to come down and see that it was put through in first-class shape.

The clast train to the Beach last night carried the great quantities of supplies required to feed 30 diners. These in cluded 30 live lobriers, just received oy express from Maine; hundreds of bushels of hard and soft clams from Rhode Island, 30 chickens, see weed, corn, octatoes, trips, watermelons, and a number of other dainties.

Conferences with Railway to Continue This Week.

the telegraphers of the Southern Railway and the officials in the effort to secure shorter hours, better pay, and more comfortable conditions is not looked upon with favor by the telegraphers' committee, which has been in session here for sions, but no settlement is yet in sight. The telegraphers are represented by a committee, of which H. G. Alexander is the chairman, and it is said that the points at issue will be sternly contested. Difficulties caused by the absence of President Finley and of all the vice presidents of the root stand in the way of a most of the road stand in the way of a speedy settlement. It is expected that when some of the officials return at the first of this week definite action will be taken. In the meantime, the men are unwilling to dir-uss the plans or to throw any light upon the course they will adopt in event of a failure to effect adjustment.

POOLS TO BE KEPT OPEN

Municipal Bathing Beach Hours Will Be Short.

B. Hudson, superintendent of the bathing beach, believes that the $100 remaining from the yearly appropriation will be enough to warrent the partial opening of the pools until October 10.

After September 15, the beach will be open from only 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

aftername:

Dr Hudson reports that the average daily attendance during the year has been 800. He mays that fully 2,000 boys and 300 girls have learned to swim at the beach during the year.

ANACOSTIA.

Residents of Congress Heights are wondering whether the latest supposed difficulty encountered will in any way interefere with the completion of the double track system to that saturb. J. C. CONLIFF, Manager. 157-tt mission issue an order requiring the rallway company to do thie, it is probable that all cars of the Eleventh street line
will not go as far as Congress Heights,
but have their terminus as at present.
The company has had several of these brakes placed on a number of the cars, with a view of testing them out. It is believed that the work of double tracking will proceed without a bitch, regardless of this contemplated order.
The marriage of Miss Eva Ball to Mr.
Solon B. McGhee took place on Thursday evening last at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herfurth, Chester sirvet,

Residents of Congress Heights are also glad to note that the estimates of the fire department for the coming year include an item for the purchase of an automobile steamer for this section. The completion of the extension of the watermain to this suburb makes this possible. The Rev. Charles H. Hart, pastor of St. Teresa's Church in Anacostis, has been in Baltimore the past week, where he attended the retreat of the clergy of the diocese. During his absence the Rev. Martin. P. Egan, sesistant, has been in charge.

A large crowd attended the benefit cor cert held last evening in the Anacostia moving picture park, under the auspices of the committee of the Anacostia Citi-zens' Association. C. R. Boyer, of Washington, in dramatic recitations, and the Ideal Musical Club of Alexandria, participated. The proceeds are to be added to the fund for the purpose of a flag staff to be erected in Logan Park on September 39.
